

The Lamb on Mount Zion
Revelation 14: 1-5

SCRIPTURE

Chapter 14

¹ Then I looked, and behold a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father's name written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of the loud thunder. And I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps. ³They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. ⁴These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. ⁵And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

COMMENTARY

We now are translated to the Heavenly Mount Zion and we find the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, with the 144,000 from Chapter 7. These are the 144,000 literal Jews, sealed on their foreheads with the Father's name.

In Verse 3 we are told that they were redeemed from the earth, and in Verse 4 that they were redeemed from among men. So it appears that they were all martyred for their witness, and are now in heaven before the throne of God, singing a new song.
